Avalere’s Home Health Expertise Featured in AHHQI Chartbook

Heather Flynn

Summary

For the last several years, Avalere has worked with the Alliance for Home Health Quality and Innovation (AHHQI) to analyze the ever-changing home health landscape.

Known as the “Home Health Chartbook,” this annual analysis dives deep into the trends affecting the home health industry, including patient demographics, the home health workforce, and the economic contribution of home health agencies. The 2019 version of the chartbook along with those of previous years can be found on AHHQI’s website.

This analysis is powered by various data sets, including Medicare fee-for-service claims, the Medicare Current Beneficiary Survey, Medicare cost reports, and data from the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Labor Statistics.
